IF Dr. Caldwell does not change the head letter on assuming control of the Charlotte Chrohicle, THE CITIZEN will be wofully disappointed in his taste.

THE New York Herald and World have about agreed that the World's fair may be held in Chicago this time, but the Sun, with its characteristic inability to see that anything it opposes can be right and proper, protests. The building has not stopped at Chicago, however.

On Tuesday night the weather was about as nearly satisfactory in the United States east of the Rocky mountains as could reasonably be asked for. It was snowing in northeastern New York, and was cloudy at Chicago, and the balance of the whole country was clear. This is the report made by the United States weather bureau.

that it said "Don't" to Senator Hill with reference to the New York state appointed to the New York state appointed to the circuit bench had he THE New York World still sticks to it democratic convention's being held on February 22. But Hill "did" just the same, and the World acknowledges that he has the New York delegation in his pocket. He evidently intends to get himself into a position to dictate, and if the democracy is made of the kind of stuff that can be dictated to. David Bennett

THE Chilian government says it has secretary of the navy.

The Indiana men are booming Walbeen deceived by its minister at Washington as to the feeling of the United States government toward it. It says that no longer than Friday last Minister Montt go west for a candidate and take some sent out a very pacific dispatch which he to be considered than Atttorney General claims received its inspiration from the department of the secretary of state. This is certainly a very decided reflection partner, and he may take this opportuupon Mr. Blaine. It looks as if the secretary has been giving out one thing, while the president has been endeavoring to make a different impression. Each of these officials is too intent upon securing the nomination for president to be in active accord upon anything. There may be some sensational developments

IN THE North American Review for February there is an article by Richard Corker, the Tammany hall chief, upon the subject, "Tammany Hall and the Democracy," in which he practically undertakes to justify and commend the modern professional politician. If Mr. Croker had confined himself to an argument in favor of every man studying polities sufficiently to vote with intelligence, his work would have been commended, average American believe that it is good I. P. Betty, E. H. Fulenwider, E. M. for this country to have professional politicians, and those politicians made on the Tammany order, he will find those who applaud only equal to the roll call of Tammany Hall.

The Buncombe county farmers' alli- ner, Richmond. ance did some most sensible work at their meeting held in Asheville vesterday. The resolution passed pledging the alliance to use its influence in the raising of money in the various school districts of the county, whereby the public schools of Dr. McGuire. She is suffering with may be kept open six instead of four an affection of a nerve in her forchead, months, and the further resolution urg-ing farmers to raise less tobacco, were both thoroughly practical and timely have resort to the treatment which he both thoroughly practical and timely has previously given patients for the subjects for action. There is no question same affection, and cut the nerve. but that the public school term should be extended, and to eight or nine months throughout the entire south hope that if possible. And to the mountain farmer the raising of too much tobacce is becoming the same sort of a curse that cotton is to his eastern brother. Plant less tobacco, and what is planted, let it be fillers rather than cutters, as the weight of the former more than overcomes the higher price of the latter.

The Sale of the City Bonds.

As announced in THE CITIZEN of yesterday the board of aldermen have agreed to accept a proposition from Coffin & Stanton, bankers, of New York and London, made through their agent, C. F. Street, to purchase $200,000 of the city's improvement bonds at one hundredcents Monday over $500,000 was pledged to on the dollar, allowing five per cent commission for making the sale.

As THE CITIZEN remarked on a previous occasion, when a similar proposition was proposed, there may be some who will contend that this is not in direct accord ance with the letter of the improvement aet. But it believes that there is not a go forward, that will enter any serious at Chicago with the object of uniting on a protest against the acceptance of this to those who have any knowlege of the prices ruling in securities of a similar kind, it is known that the sale is a re that his resignation would soon beforthmarkably good one, and is very much coming.

The Missouri democratic state commit then to adopt the better for the city than to adopt the scheme proposed by a few who have opposed the sale of any of the bonds under ing delegates to the national convention the improvement act, and undertake to will be held on May 11. A majority of sell $200,000 six per cent. bonds. The interest on the $200,000 six per cent. bonds for the same period, twenty years, bonds for the same period, twenty years, would amount to $40,000 more than state convention from the 14th of April that upon the five per cents., and the present deal is therefore $30,000 better for the city, supposing that the six per cents could be sold at one hundred cents after paving the commissions, which is not the least probable.

The legislature certainly never contemplated the sale of a five per cent. bond at a figure so much above par that they would net the city of Asheville one hundred cents on the dollar. A reason-low, and the quality of the work called for by the specifications first class, and it proposes to keep a sharp lookout to see that the work is done in absolute acordance with the plans and specifications. And there can be little reason to suppose that the work can be slighted, so long as B. M. Lee has the supervision of it, as there is no man in America who has a better reputation for honesty and integrity than the present city en-JUDGE BRADLEY'SSUCCESSOR Ex Senator Edmunds Suggested as a Possibility.

Gossip is already busy fixing up the possibilties for a successor to Justice Bradley of the supreme bench. There are those who believe that President Harrison will appoint some man who can be of use to him in his fight for the presidential nomination and election.

Some of the statemen assume that the President will make his selection within the circuit represented by Justice Bradley, comprising Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey.

In this connection Chief Justice Paxton or Judge Mitchel, of the supreme court of Pennsylvania, are prominently men-tioned. Should the selection be made from New Jersey the appointment may go not decided to appoint a democrat from that circuit

But the name that meets with heartiest approval is that of Ex-Senator Ed munds. Such a selection could not fail to meet with the hearty approval of Tracy. There is probably no member f the cabinet more popular than the ter Q. Gresbam. Such a suggestion is hardly likely to meet the President's ap-Miller. The President has been auxious to do all in his power for his former law New York Herald.

ASHEVILLE TOBACCO WORKS,

Manufacturers of Plug, Fancy Smoking Tobacco and Cigarettes,
Asheville, N. C., January 15, 1892

The Asheville Tobacco Works, a corporation created under the laws of North Cart lina, was organized for the manufacture of plug and smoking tobacco three years ago, and has done a prosp rous business with an ever-increasing trade. The orders that come in for tobacco are carefully looked over and goods are only shipped to those parties well rated and snown to be solvent. bacco are carefully looked over and goods are only shipped to those parties well rated and known to be solvent.

The policy of the company is conservative. The directors meet once a month to audit accounts and transact all necessary business. Since the formation of this stock company it has outsined control of the only eighrette machine in America outside of the eighrette first that is, "The American Tobacco Company."

The profit in machine made eighrettes is lige, varying from about fifty to one hundred per cent. The business is practically cash, as eighrettes are sold for cash or on short time. The Asheville Tobacco Works can self all the eighrettes they make at a handsome profit. Others have come from responsible parties to take the whole output. The present capacity is 144-400 in ten hours with one machine. Another machine has been ordered. The cost of making 1,000 eighrettes is a follows:
